

FACT SHEET FOR FUTURE MENTORS

The National Guard Youth Challe NGe Program (NGYCP)...

- ...is a co-educational, preventative program for high school dropouts ages sixteen to nineteen years old.
- ...has graduated over 85,000 young adults all over the nation and its territories.
- ...develops young people in core component areas that include: leadership/followership, responsible citizenship, service to community, life-coping skills, physical fitness, health and hygiene, job skills, and academic excellence.
- ...is made up of Pre-Challe NGe, a two week introductory period; the Residential Phase, in which the young person lives on program grounds for 5.5 months; and a year-long Post-Residential Phase, in which students return to their communities to obtain and maintain placement in continuing education or employment.
- ...embraces a "quasi-military" philosophy. NGYCP resembles the military in that the program environment is based on principles such as self-discipline, teamwork, self-esteem, personal responsibility, ethics, goal setting, and community service.
- ...is NOT a boot camp. Program graduates are NOT in any way required or expected to enlist in the military upon graduation.
- ...is for young people who want to attend the program voluntarily.

To be a mentor to a young person participating in Challe NGe, you should...

- ...be willing to agree to undergo a screening process that includes, but is not limited to, a written application, two reference checks, a criminal record check (including a sex offender registry check), and an interview.
- ... be prepared to participate in mentor training—online and onsite at the program the young person is attending.
- ... be willing to begin building a relationship with the cadet during the Residential Phase, maintaining weekly contact via phone, email, letters, or face-to-face visits.
- ...be prepared to meet for a minimum of four contact hours per month during the Post-Residential Phase and submit monthly reports on your contact hours.
- ...be willing to share your life experiences and support a young person in a quest to change his/her life.
